

Beginning in Seattle on the Coast Starlight train, paraplegic Stan Morse begins an epic solo round-the-world odyssey. Sometimes not knowing where he will sleep the next night, Morse takes his very first scuba dive on the Great Barrier Reef, goes fly fishing in New Zealand, challenges Bangkok's rough streets, and gets into a strange poker game with members of . . . well, you'll just have to discover for yourself. Morse wanted to prove that great and wonderful adventures are not beyond the grasp of the disabled. He reveals how precious life can be for someone with the courage to find a way to do what others say is impossible. Share his inspiring story with a friend suffering through a spell of doubt. Or, pour yourself a hot cup of tea or cocoa on a cold winter's day, find a comfortable chair, and lose yourself in a grand adventure!
