

(First Edition) Mental Dimensions is a collection of child-friendly short stories and flash fiction, but can also be enjoyed by playful grown-ups. A few of these tales are plain fiction, containing no magic or mystical properties; others resemble family-friendly fairy tales, fables, or parables; some touch very lightly upon meditation concepts, others touch softly upon isolation, loneliness, and suicide; some are satirical and humorous, a little dry at times, while others may be thought-provoking; some may touch your heart, but only with a gentle kiss or a calm breeze, completely free of poison and malice. They can be previewed for free on my web site at <http://mentaldimensions.net/> Contents: 1. Hovering on the Winds of Thought A story about a story 2. The Search for the Enchanted Balls Two cats go on a quest to find their toys 3. The Obedient Parents Two children get their wish 4. James Love James is confused about love 5. The Grasshopper and the Cliff A grasshopper ponders whether or not to jump 6. The Problematic 6000 A machine that helps people make solid excuses rather than weak ones 7. The Camel in the Desert A lonely camel finds new friends 8. The Magic Brain A man wishes he had a brain that didn't make mistakes 9. The Prisoner A prisoner gets a second chance 10. The Blind Man and His Neighbors A man loses his sight but learns how to see 11. William and Mary Two senior citizens move in together or maybe it never really happened 12. Mount Solation A man on a mountain learns about life 13. The Money Trees Three men each with their own money tree, but what's it really worth?
