

What can you do in six months to upgrade your financial status? Start thinking about it now and make your plans to rest assured the sixth month will be a success for you. The most challenging situation is always when you don't have capital and also don't have where to borrow. If this applies to you, then this problem will be dealt with in the third volume of Concept Leadership; so that at the end of the lessons here, you will no longer have financial problems; since you will know how to work on your plan and start enjoying the yield from your business start up. Keep pursuing your dream and soon the light of your greatness will shine, though you may not see it shining and those around may not consider it as greatness, but it is greatness; which is told of, only in orations, so don't expect to be adored as a great one when alive, people don't like feeling inferior so they won't adore you because they know it would make them seem inferior. And even you may not notice the light of your greatness has already started shining, but not to worry about knowing, it is always the case, great people never pay lip service to their own greatness; after all they never see themselves as great persons. But your greatness will be known once you have paid the price to be yourself.
